ALTMETRICS

• Altmetrics (“alternative metrics”) provides a way to measure the conversations and chatter about scholarly works

• Complementary to traditional citation-based metrics

• Measures a work’s popularity
  • Social media - Facebook, Twitter,
  • Reference managers – Mendeley, CiteULike, etc.
  • News coverage
  • Discussion on blogs
  • Citations in wikipedia

WHERE CAN YOU FIND AN ALTMETRIC SCORE?

• Altmetric badges are integrated into many databases, such as Scopus and Web of Science

• Also integrated into the Health Sciences Research Commons
ARCHIVING YOUR WORK
WHAT IS HEALTH SCIENCES RESEARCH COMMONS (HSRC)?

HSRC is a hosted digital institutional repository maintained by Himmelfarb Library

Two components to HSRC:

- Faculty publications lists → harvested and maintained by Himmelfarb Library staff
- Other works → author self-submits to HSRC
  - Pre-prints and post-prints of journal articles
  - Conference papers
  - Posters and presentations
  - Full list on next slide!
WHAT TYPES OF MATERIAL CAN WE ARCHIVE?

Articles (pre-prints and post-prints)
Audio Files
Book chapters
Dissertations and theses
Capstone Projects
Posters
Grey literature
Datasets
Teaching materials
Artifacts of institutional history
Non-traditional scholarly content
Others….
WHY USE HSRC?

Service being offered to you allow you to increase the visibility of your research

Make work discoverable and increase citations (indexed by Google Scholar)

Store work in one location and ensure the longevity of access

Help preserve institutional history

Highlight viability of research to traditional publishers

Access PlumX and Altmetrics for usage statistics
WHY SELF-ARCHIVE IN HSRC? CONT.

Obtain metrics on your works

- Hit and download counts
- Live readership maps
- Altmetrics

HOW CAN WE MAKE SURE YOUR PUBLICATION LIST IS COMPLETE?

Contact Sara Hoover: shoover@gwu.edu

Send us your publications
- Email CV to hsrc@gwu.edu

Create account in HSRC and self-deposit

Pull data from your ORCID
SELF-SUBMISSION

Create author account in HSRC

Choose a series to add your publication to (ex. SMHS student publications)

Fill out required fields and upload file

Wait for email confirmation with durable URL

Caution! Not all materials can be archived immediately depending on the nature of what you’re archiving

HOW TO GET YOUR ORCID

It's easy! Sign up at www.orcid.org

DISTINGUISH YOURSELF IN THREE EASY STEPS

1. REGISTER
Get your unique ORCID identifier Register now!
Registration takes 30 seconds.

2. ADD YOUR INFO
Enhance your ORCID record with your professional information and link to your other identifiers (such as Scopus or ResearcherID or LinkedIn).

3. USE YOUR ORCID ID
Include your ORCID identifier on your Webpage, when you submit publications, apply for grants, and in any research workflow to ensure you get credit for your work.
